Feature Teacher Notice

In an effort to allow as many students as possible to experience a class with our Feature Teacher, Ann Coddington, we will assign each student wanting her classes, only one class with her. If by October 24, however, there are still openings, you may take more than one. Just in case you cannot get in more than one, CIRCLE the one you most prefer. Thank you for your consideration!

DO NOT PAY CLASS AND MATERIALS FEES NOW.

PAY REGISTRATION NOW. Checks will not be cashed until after Oct.15th.

The first payment of registration/membership fees/raffle tickets is due by Oct 20th, with the second payment of class and materials fees by Nov 15th. $US only. An invoice will be sent. If you plan to be out of town, contact registrar Karen Samdahl at 425-827-5372 or weaveinwinter@nwbasketweavers.org

Please indicate 1st, 2nd & 3rd class choices for each day, as some classes may fill early, or not fill. Class fees will be due after receipt of your confirmation package in early November.

_____ New Member _____ Renewing Member _____ Any changes to info above?

_____ I wish to be added to the Guild e-news email list.

This will assure that you will receive announcements of events and activities and the digital versions of our newsletter and annual Handbook & Directory.

_____ I am unable to join the e-news list therefore I am requesting printed copies of the newsletter.

How did you learn about the Guild? _____

We would love to know more about you. Send a profile or a few paragraphs about your interest and involvement in basketry, perhaps how you got started. Include any skills you can offer, or committee activities you would like to volunteer for. Volunteering is a great way to get to know people and get the most out of your membership. The guild is only as active as its members!
